

Mrs. Darting's Class Reading Calendar Log 2011-2012

Directions:

According to Jefferson County Literacy Standards, each 5th grade student needs to be reading at least 150 minutes a week at home. Students may choose to read for any combination of minutes per night to fulfill this requirement, as long as it equals 150 minutes at the end of each week. Please continue reading even during vacation time away from school.

To fulfill requirements, students may read a book, magazine, or news article of their choice, as long as it satisfies the time standards. Reading out loud with family members or reading silently, yet intently, are both fine. However, when using this time to read, all other distractions should be eliminated so the full benefits of this practice may be exercised.

Please follow the directions on each page as to when to turn in that month's calendar into the wicker basket in the classroom, how to fill out the calendar day by day, where parent initials and signatures go, and where to put the monthly minute totals. Please rip out only one month at a time to turn in when due. Keep the rest together as a calendar to be completed throughout the remainder of the year.

Along with the monthly reading calendar, a "Good Fit" (grade level) book review for a particular genre will be due that month as well. Please remember to turn that in too so that you may earn credit towards that genre. Nine book reviews are due before the end of the year (one per month). You may work ahead to turn them in sooner, if you would prefer. Directions and a graphic organizer for completing the book reviews are in the "Book Review" document.

Strive to achieve the needed minutes per weekly standard, rather than just per monthly standard. Each entry should show the name of the book, its genre, and the number of minutes the student read each night. More than 45 minutes a night for 5 days a week will receive an “exceeds the standard” (4) grade.
